

Pacific Northwest Council

In conjunction with:
Bellevue Chapter
Mount Rainier Chapter
Seattle Chapter

Presents:

Ethics

The two-hour required class for CMAs

Speaker: Jim Rigos

Jim is a nationally recognized speaker and teacher. He has the Rigos courses for CPA and CMA/CFM review. His courses and methods are taught around the nation.

He is a long-time IMA member, and has taught ethics courses for over 15 years.

When: Saturday October 28, 2006 – 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM

Where: The College Club – Downtown Seattle
505 Madison Avenue
Seattle, WA

You will be directed to the proper room upon arrival

Cost: $25.00 – Payable to the Pacific Northwest Council

Limited Seating: The room has limited seating capacity; only 40 people. Please RSVP your reservation to:

Ruth Morgan-Brown
823 West Main Street, Suite 7
Sumner, WA 98390-1151

Free parking

After the class, the PNC will hold a one-hour Chapter Leadership Training session. Following a lunch break, the PNC will hold the fall Board meeting beginning at 1:30 PM at the College Club. Everyone is welcome to attend.